FAITH

On its third and final departure for America in the year 1620, the great ship Mayflower carried the Pilgrims through the vast and uncharted turbulent waters of the Atlantic on their hazardous voyage to Plymouth Colony. Armed with slightly more than FAITH in themselves and God, they had left their homes and loved ones with a FAITH strong enough to sustain them through those first severe and trying winters in the new land — an unwavering FAITH which was to build homes, churches and schools, clear the land, till the soil, unite the people in a mutual interdependence, fashion the first colonies, and give birth to a new nation with a foundation firmly enrooted in FAITH.

History tells us that years later the same FAITH made possible the revolt against corrupt rulers, bearing its culmination in the Boston Tea Party which fanned the flames of insurrection and kindled the spark of revolution by a Declaration of Independence, reconfirming their FAITH in the equality, liberties, and inherent rights of all men.

Thus began, with only unwavering FAITH as a ruling guide, America's boundless wilderness was explored, her deep rivers bridged, her fertile prairies and proud mountains spanned by rail and road, and a civilization reached still undreamed of by many nations of the world.

These things which today we take for granted were hard-earned by men of vision, conviction, and FAITH. In recent years the world has been beset by two wars, and the upheaval and disturbed conditions that surround and follow such wide-spread catastrophes provide the medium for distrustful thinking and a resultant lack of FAITH in other nations and other individuals.

Yet, a moment's reflection on the past will show the greatness of America was built by the FAITH of individuals in God, FAITH in themselves, and FAITH in those honest men around them.

This "FAITH" of which we speak made strong communities, strong states, and a strong nation — strong enough to survive the trials of time. But there is no slumber still in the "America of Progress," and one will continue to progress through the vision, courage, and FAITH of her sons and daughters. May you be one of those who has and keeps that FAITH.

FIFTY YEARS OF PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION

Foreword

In presenting to the pupils and friends of Alton High School this Golden Anniversary edition of THE TATLER, it has been our purpose to make the book a true picture of high school life — its work, its play, its serious effort, and its harmless fun. This 50th Anniversary issue contains events of interest from May 1, 1954 to May 1, 1955.

The pictures of high school life fifty years ago are reproduced from the first edition of THE TATLER, issued in 1905. It is hoped that successive issues of the Annual will preserve a complete record of the life of the High School.

Student Council

The Student Council which is Alton High's form of student government is composed of representatives from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The members meet once a week to discuss problems and improvements for the students and school. Mr. Thomas sponsors the organization.

This year the Council bought weights for the boys' gym classes, sponsored Homecoming, and helped solve many student and faculty problems.

Every spring there is a colorful campaign and election of officers. The 1954-1955 officers as elected last April were: Mike Walters, President, Charles Ehlert, Vice President, and Susan Ehlert, Secretary-Treasurer. Due to scheduling difficulties, Charles was unable to serve, so the Council selected Joe Weaver as Vice President for the first semester and Tom Monical for the second semester.

Alton High School Chorus

ALTON HIGH CHORUS

The Alton High "good will ambassadors" deserve a great deal of praise for their accomplishments this year.

The programs in which all members participate are: the annual Christmas Concert and the Junior-Senior High School Festival.

Small Chorus and ensembles are in constant demand by the community. They have carried the name of our alma mater to a good portion of the population of Alton.

"Flowers! For me!"

ALTON HOMECOMING
ALTON vs COLLINSVILLE ✱

If eyes are made for seeing, then beauty is its own excuse for being.

Denise McAfoos was crowned the Football Queen of 1954. She was escorted to the throne by Mike Walters. The special maids were: Thelma Stanka, escorted by Vic Belanger; Sue McAfoos, escorted by Jim Leavell; Sherry Hagerty, escorted by Dick Shirack; and Mae Lookiebill, escorted by Charles Tosh. Betty Hausman, the Retiring Queen, was escorted by Dave Ash. Bob Denby sang, and Darlene Bailey danced in honor of the queen.

The Queen of '54 relinquishing the scepter to the Queen of '55.

Hail to the Queen.

Gabriel, Blow Your Horn

The summer home of Miss Thelma (Grace Rexroat) was the scene of extreme confusion. Miss Thelma brought niece (Barbara Schmidt) to the mountains to keep her away from Herb Brown (Jim Percival). Unknown to Janet and Herb, Miss Thelma and Mr. Brown (Jim La Marsh) were ex-sweethearts. The play was further complicated by the zany antics of other members of the cast. They are: Karen Kelly, Barrie Zoll, Alan Landers, Bob Shinpaugh, Pat Flory, Bob Denby, Ronnie Rain, and Diana Weaver.

We're going with you

After all, we've become old friends during your stay here. Whether you knew it or not, almost every day of your school year you've used a product made by Olin Mathieson, or one that Olin Mathieson helped make. Just read the list on the right, and you'll see what we mean.

Once you're established in business or professional life you'll probably hear a lot more about Olin Mathieson. A good many of you may have business with us. And a few of you may even come to work for us. There'll be room, because Olin Mathieson is growing. When Olin Industries, Inc., merged with the Mathieson Chemical Corporation in August, 1954, they brought together the skills, facilities and resources of two of the country's most rapidly expanding industrial organizations. You and the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation will both be going forward, and we'll meet each other often as we do.

Meanwhile, we extend our heartiest congratulations and good wishes on your graduation. May the future bring you everything you've hoped for and worked for.

Aerial View of Alton

An aerial photograph of the Alton High School campus. The image shows several large, multi-story brick buildings arranged in a complex. A large, open grassy area, likely a football field, is visible in the lower left. The surrounding area includes other smaller buildings and trees. The overall layout shows a well-developed school campus.

HISTORY OF THE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDINGS OF ALTON

The year 1866 marks the opening of the first public high school in the city of Alton. It began in the basement of the Unitarian Church on Third Street as a two year high school. There were only a few students who went to the school and only simple types of learning were used. After a few years, the people became more educational-minded and in 1886, a new building was completed on Tenth and Alton Streets. This was a brick structure three stories high containing twelve rooms; costing about $40,000 and, at that time, it was considered one of the finest in the state. The upper floor was given over to the high school in which a three year course was taught.

After sixteen years the people of the city again thought they were getting behind the times and constructed what was at that time the latest thing for the buildings of a high school. In 1902, the Roosevelt building, costing $50,000, on Sixth and Mechanic Streets, was ready for occupancy. This building was unsurpassed by any in many of the larger cities. It had a gymnasium, auditorium, library, lockers for all students, shops for manual training and mechanical drawing. Musical instruction was made available, and athletic teams were started. This new building had three floors and a gymnasium and cafeteria below. The TATLER for 1905 states, "Who could wish for anything more magnificent?" It was a fine building, and served its purpose well; but as the number of students increased, the school building became too crowded. The citizens of Alton again responded and a new senior high school was erected.

The new building was started in 1926. It is constructed on a large tract of land north of College Avenue in Upper Alton. The building faces west and is divided into four main parts, the auditorium on the south, the gymnasium on the north, the main building in the center, and the work rooms and the engine rooms north of the main building and east of the gymnasium.

The campus of Alton High School is very attractive. On the south a large semi-circle of grass extends to College Avenue. Shrubbery and trees are planted along the walks from the center door to the street.

On the west of the building, the lawn gradually slopes to a line parallel to the gymnasium and auditorium and then becomes a terrace to the parking lot. On the other side is a hill on which the present East Junior High School building now stands. As soon as a new East Junior Building can be completed on Washington Avenue the present East Junior building will become a part of the High School. North of this is the Olin Vocational Building. The football field is north of this and is lighted for night football games. This is the last year for the present football field to be used. The 1955-56 season will see Alton's home games played in the new Alton Public Schools Stadium on State Street.

FAITH

On its third and final departure for America in the year 1620, the good ship Mayflower carried the Pilgrims through the vast and uncharted turbulent waters of the Atlantic to their hazardous voyage to Plymouth Colony. Armed with slightly more than FAITH in themselves and God, they had left their homes and loved ones with a FAITH strong enough to sustain them through those first severe and trying winters in the new land — an unwavering FAITH which was to build homes, churches and schools, clear the land, till the soil, unite the people in a mutual interdependence, fashion the first colonies, and give birth to a new nation with a foundation firmly erected in FAITH.

History tells us that years later the same FAITH made possible the revolt against arrogant rulers, hastened its culmination in the Boston Tea Party which fanned the flames of insurrection and kindled the spark of revolution by a declaration of independence, reconfirmed their FAITH in the equality, liberties, and inherent rights of all men.

Thus began, with only answering FAITH as a ruling guide, America's boundless wilderness was explored, her deep rivers bridged, her fertile prairies and proud mountains spanned by rail and road, and a civilization reached still undreamed of by many nations of the world.

These things which today we take for granted were hard-earned by men of vision, courage, and FAITH. In recent years the world has been beset by two wars, and the upheaval and disturbed conditions that surround and follow such wide-spread catastrophes provide the medium for distasteful thinking and a resultant lack of FAITH in other nations and other individuals.

Yet, a moment's reflection on the past will show the greatness of America was built by the FAITH of individuals in God, FAITH in themselves, and FAITH in those honest men around them.

This "FAITH" of which we speak made strong communities, strong states, and a strong nation — strong enough to survive the trials of time. But there is no standing still in the "America of Progress," and she will continue to progress through the vision, courage, and FAITH of her men and daughters. May you be one of those who has and keeps that FAITH.
